

Panel & Roundtable

International Sporting Events :

A game changer for Diversity & Inclusion in Japanese business & society

Japan is stepping into the world spotlight as it plays host to international sporting events that showcases the world's diversity. As such, embracing the principles of diversity and inclusion is becoming a national priority that has implications for all sectors of society – including the corporate sector.

You are cordially invited to this panel and roundtable, presented by the Diversity & Inclusion in Asia Network (DIAN) in partnership with EY, a long-term DIAN member and partner of Community Business, where we will explore how businesses can take advantage of this opportunity and how we can use this opportunity to drive widespread change.

With Panel Speakers:

- Janelle Sasaki – EY, Executive Director, Diversity & Inclusion Services
- Miyuki Suzuki – Cisco, VP Sales & Country Manager, Japan
- Yuki Higashi – Nomura, Executive Director, Japan Head of Talent
- Makoto Majima – Paralympian Athlete
- Kazuyuki Ishibashi – LIXIL, Sr. Director, Olympic Paralympic Promotion Department
