

See Event Details and Highlights of the Tokyo Launch Event Below!

GDIB 10th Anniversary Launch Event

Launch Event Name	International Sporting Events: A Game Changer for Diversity & Inclusion in Japanese Business & Society
Date, Time, & Location	Wednesday, July 20, 2016: 4pm-6:30 pm JST Ernst & Young: Kasumigaseki Building, 33 rd Floor, 3-2-5 Kasumigaseki, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, Japan
Event Description	Panel and Roundtable Japan is stepping into the world spotlight as it plays host to international sporting events that showcases the world's diversity. As such, embracing the principles of diversity and inclusion is becoming a national priority that has implications for all sectors of society – including the corporate sector.
Partners, Sponsors, Speakers	Partners: Ernst & Young, a long-term DIAN member and partner of Community Business Panel Speakers: Janelle Sasaki, EY , Executive Director, D&I Services Miyuki Suzuki, Cisco , VP Sales & Country Manager, Japan Yuki Higashi, Nomura, Executive Director, Japan Head of Talent Makoto Majima, Paralympian Athlete Kazuyuki Ishibashi, LIXIL, Sr. Director, Olympic Paralympic Promotion Dept.
Other	Fee: None, Free English and Japanese Language
Contact Information	Janelle Sasaki Janelle.sasaki@jp.ey.com

HIGHLIGHTS OF TOKYO, JAPAN LAUNCH – HELD JULY 20, 2016

The GDIB launch was coupled with an event sponsored by EY and the Diversity & Inclusion Asia Network (DIAN). It was held July 20 at 4:00 to 6:30 pm at Ernst & Young Offices in Tokyo. Some materials were translated into Japanese. Photos of the speakers and participants gathered around tables showing the GDIB model and handouts translated into Japanese were taken, however we can't show photos without the permission of everyone in them. And there were too many. GDIB Expert Panelist Janelle Sasaki, Executive Director D&I EY Advisory Japan led on planning and was a speaker at the launch. GDIB Expert Panelist, Ann Sado, Executive Director, Breakthrough Seminars Inc., Tokyo, also spoke.

GDIB モデル

